Undergraduate Online Learning Programs

The following programs are available through Undergraduate Online Learning: Global Studies Major; Biblical Studies Major; Associate of Arts and Bible; Certificate in Bible; PSEO; Early College. To enroll in one of the degree or certificate programs, prospective students must meet Northwestern College's admission requirements (see page 17).

Global Studies Major Bachelor of Arts

Northwestern College offers a major in Global Studies through Undergraduate Online Learning. This program is designed primarily for those who are preparing for or are currently involved in serious missions endeavors. Global Studies is a degree completion program for students who have completed 60 credits or more of general education requirements and electives. The program requirements are the Global Studies core curriculum (listed below), Global Studies modules (48 credits), and elective credits. These credits may be completed through Undergraduate Online Learning.

Global Studies Curriculum is as follows (must have 60 credits to begin Global Studies modules):

Core Curriculum . . . . . 31 cr
- Written Communication . . . . . 6 cr
  - English Composition 4
  - Research Writing. 2
- Oral Communication. . . . . 3 cr
  - Speech 3
- Social Sciences (2 Areas) . . . . . 8 cr
- Humanities (2 Areas) . . . . . 6 cr
- Science & Mathematics (2 Areas) . . . . . 8 cr
  - Mathematics 4
  - Lab Science 4

Major . . . . . 48 cr

Electives . . . . . 46 cr

TOTAL . . . . . 125 cr

Developed by the Institute of International Studies, an arm of the U.S. Center for World Mission, the Global Studies modules are an expansion of a widely used program called Perspectives on the World Christian Movement. They provide a solid, integrated foundation in the study of missions, Bible, anthropology, world religions, global history—and even some basics in science and biblical languages—organized as eight modules, each with emphasis on a particular period of history:

GLS3310	First Things I: Creation to 400 B.C.
GLS3315	First Things II: Creation to 400 B.C.
GLS3320	Formulation I: 400 B.C. to A.D. 200
GLS3325	Formulation II: 400 B.C. to A.D. 200
GLS4330	Fulfillment I: A.D. 200 to 1945
GLS4335	Fulfillment II: A.D. 200 to 1945
GLS4340	Finalization I: The Contemporary World
GLS4345	Finalization II: The Contemporary World

Each of the modules carries 6 semester credits and is designed to be completed in 15 weeks, with an investment in study time of approximately 18 hours per week. See pages 195–196 for course descriptions.

Upon successful completion of the eight modules and with the appropriate number and distribution of other credits (to total 125 semester credits), the student qualifies for a Bachelor of Arts degree in Global Studies from Northwestern College. Students are encouraged to select other Undergraduate Online Learning courses to meet any degree requirements not covered by previous course work.

Biblical Studies Major Bachelor of Arts

The Biblical Studies major is designed to provide in-depth study and preparation in Bible and related areas and subjects. It is intended for students who wish to pursue graduate studies in preparation for teaching, for those who desire a solid pre-seminary program, or for persons who wish to gain a high proficiency in biblical studies. The degree is granted upon completion of 125 credits as specified below and on pages 41–42 (40 credits must be in 3000- or 4000-level courses).

*MAY NOT INCLUDE COURSES USED TO MEET CORE CURRICULUM REQUIREMENTS.

Associate of Arts and Bible

The Associate of Arts and Bible is designed to prepare the graduate for transfer to an upper-level degree program at Northwestern or another institution. The degree is granted upon completion of 60 credits. The Associate of Arts and Bible degree program follows the curriculum on pages 51–52, with the exception of course options that are not offered through Undergraduate Online Learning. Students should check course requirements of the program and school where further study is planned. To enroll in this degree, prospective students must meet the admission requirements on page 17.

Certificate in Bible

The Certificate in Bible is designed for those wishing concentrated training in the Word of God. It assists students to become established in the faith, rooted and grounded in the Word, and fortified with answers to humanity's primary questions regarding life's purpose and destiny. It provides tools for continuing Bible study and for effective Christian witness. It is of value to professional men and women going to the mission field and needing a concentrated study of the Bible. The Certificate in Bible is granted upon completion of the same Bible credits included in Northwestern College's bachelor's degrees (see page 53), with the exception of course options that are not offered through Undergraduate Online Learning. To enroll in this certificate, prospective students must meet the admission requirements on page 17.

PSEO

The Postsecondary Enrollment Options (PSEO) Program, through the State of Minnesota, allows public-, private-, and home-schooled high school juniors and seniors who are residents of Minnesota to complete courses for both secondary and postsecondary credit. The State of Minnesota pays the tuition and most materials costs for these courses.

All PSEO and Early College students must provide evidence of being able to perform college-level work. This evidence must include the following:

1. Acceptable score on standardized or state benchmark test (ACT, SAT, etc.).
2. Acceptable high school GPA.
3. High school class rank of upper third (high school juniors) or upper half (high school seniors). Home school students are exempt.

Early College

High school juniors and seniors who are residents outside the State of Minnesota, who would like to take summer courses, or who would like to take non state-approved courses, can get a head start on their college career with the Early College Program.

All PSEO and Early College students must provide evidence of being able to perform college-level work. This evidence must include the following:

1. Acceptable score on standardized or state benchmark test (ACT, SAT, etc.).
2. Acceptable high school GPA.
3. High school class rank of upper third (high school juniors) or upper half (high school seniors). Home school students are exempt.
