

Jenny and I are presenting our group project for our second semester of nursing school. The objective for our presentation is to educate the community about local resources for Type 1 diabetes. We reached out to Linda Cardinal, a diabetic coordinator for Park County. Linda provides many resources and services to both Type 1 and Type 2 diabetic patients. During our 1.5 to 2 minute presentation, Jenny and I will go into detail about the various resources that Linda provides.