Records Release Statement and Signature:

In order to track the progress of TRIO Student Support Services (SSS) participants throughout their college career, SSS staff will access records and information on current and past academic standing, coursework, interim or final grades, attendance, placement scores, college enrollment status, scholarship or financial aid application and award status, and official or unofficial transcripts. In order to remain compliant to this federally funded grant, we are required to access and report student educational data including GPA, enrollment status (at NWC or elsewhere), degree status, income and/or first-generation status with the US Department of Education.

I authorize the SSS Program to obtain information on my financial aid and academic records, including enrollment in and progress toward degree for any institution in which I enroll, for grant reporting purposes. I understand that this information is to be used for appraising the effectiveness of the SSS program and services, increasing the effectiveness of the program, to maintain active grant status, and to determine current and future participation status.

By submitting this form, I am certifying that all of the information provided on this form is correct and complete to the best of my knowledge.

*Income-Eligibility Chart

Funding for TRIO Student Support Services is provided by the U.S. Department of Education. The USDE requires proof that funds are serving those for whom they are intended. For that reason, documentation of your eligibility status is required.

If the TAXABLE INCOME (not adjusted gross income) on your income tax form is less than the amount shown on the chart below, you are considered income-eligible. Taxable income above these guidelines does not necessarily eliminate you from qualifying for our program as you may qualify as first-generation or student with a disability.
